

On Court Team Captain Code of Conduct

1. Team captains are permitted on court to advise their players during matches.
2. Team captains' presence on court is optional and they do not have to be on court for the whole match.
3. Team captains, at their discretion, are allowed to remain on court for the duration of a match.
4. Team Captains are allowed on court during match tie-breaks or shootouts.
5. Team captains must not communicate with the opponent or the opponent's team captain at any time during the match.
6. Any problems on court must be raised by the player to the court supervisor. The team captain must not enter into any discussion with the court supervisor unless approached and may not raise issues themselves.
7. The Referee reserves the right to remove any team captain from the court if in his/her opinion their presence is detrimental to the match. No discussion will be entered into until after the rubber.
8. Team captains may not enter into any discussion with any other team captain whilst on court.
9. When there is more than one team captain/adult accompanying the players, only the nominated team captain will be allowed on court during matches. However, this person can nominate a deputy to replace them on court. Only one captain can be on court for a match unless the referee permits otherwise.

Please complete the below and submit to the Referee at time of submitting nominations.

You will be allowed on court provided the following has been completed. I agree to abide by this code of conduct and agree to leave the court area immediately upon request from the referee or court supervisor.
10. In addition to rules stated above, team captains are also bound by the ITF Rules of Tennis, Team Tennis Regulations and LTA Code of Conduct.
