Career highlights:

- Dart's biggest rankings win of 2023 came against today's opponent Anhelina Kalinina in last week's Rothesay Open Nottingham. She backed up by that win by beating Kalinina again in Birmingham on Wednesday.
- This is her seventh appearance at the Rothesay Classic Birmingham and her first appearance in the quarter-finals.
- Her best run on the grass courts at Wimbledon came in 2019, when she reached the third round.
- Dart won the ITF World Tennis Tour W25 Nottingham event last month, claiming her first ITF-level title since 2018.
- She was selected to represent Great Britain in their Billie Jean King Cup qualifying tie against France at the Coventry Building Society Arena, as Britain's highest ranked player.
- Dart made her main draw debut at the Australian Open, where she suffered a first round defeat against world No.34 Jil Teichmann.
- She represented Great Britain at the inaugural United Cup in January - helping Great Britain to finish top of Group D with wins against Australia and Spain, before losing out to a dominant United States team in the Sydney City Final.
